Title: Oregon Shakespeare Festival Photograph Collection

Dates: 1935-present

Creator: Assembled over time by various OSF personnel, with the intention of creating and building a photograph collection for the Archives.

Summary/Abstract: This collection contains the non-digital photo documentation of the Oregon Shakespeare Festival (OSF) from its year of origin, 1935. The collection documents OSF productions, departments, theatres, events, programs, operations and personnel. Includes staged and candid photos from a variety of sources. Also includes photographers' contracts, and administrative materials related to the use of the photography collection by external publications and the media.

Quantity/Physical Description: Approximately 111 cubic feet (consists of 84 c.f. of boxes; approx. 5 c.f. of hanging photo racks; 22 map cabinet drawers, only a few of which are filled to their full capacity of 1 c.f.) Formats consist of photograph prints, slides, transparencies, negatives, contact sheets and several compact discs. Photographs and negatives are in various sizes from the standard measurements to poster-sized. Some oversized photos (larger than 8x10") are mounted on cardboard.

Repository: Oregon Shakespeare Festival Archives.

Restrictions on Access: There are no restrictions on accessing material in this collection. However, access to negatives is limited for preservation/conservation purposes, and will be left to the discretion of the archivists.

Restrictions on Use: Copyright restrictions apply. Published and unpublished images are protected by copyright. Permission to publish or reproduce must be secured from OSF and the copyright holder. OSF has employed various photographers, some of whom have granted sole copyright to OSF, while others retain dual copyright with the organization. Please consult the archivists when seeking permission to publish; they can arrange to secure permissions regardless of the copyright holder.

In the case of production photographs, OSF has employed the following photographers for these years and productions:

Preferred Citation: Photographer: [Name.] Photograph Collection ([Collection Number]), [Box Number, Folder Number], Oregon Shakespeare Festival Archives.

Acquisition: The collection contents have been acquired at various times, primarily through transfer or donation. Acquisition records do not exist for the majority of collection items.

The prints of the 2013 productions were donated by Jim Amberg (Accession #OSF2013-37).

Alternative Form Available: Some photos have been digitized by the OSF photography studio and are available for viewing in Portfolio, OSF's digital asset management system. 319 photos are also available for viewing at Southern Oregon University's Hannon Library Digital Collections site:

<http://cdm15013.contentdm.oclc.org/cdm4/browse.php?CISOROOT=/p15013coll3>.

Physical Characteristics and Technical Requirements: All negatives, transparencies and slides are housed in protective plastic sleeves; many prints are also sleeved. Prints that are not stored in sleeves should be handled while wearing protective gloves, as should any slides, transparencies and negatives that have been removed from their sleeves.

Light tables and magnifying tools are available, and may be necessary to view many items in the collection.

Related Material: Several personal and organizational collections contain photographic materials owned by OSF. The OSF Archivists can provide information on these collections, and the subjects their photographic materials represent.

Additional Sources: Many images in the Photograph collection have been published in external publications. The Archives has collected some of these publications (primarily books, dissertations and journal articles,) and they will be made available upon request.

In addition, the majority of collection images were produced for use in OSF marketing materials and publications, and many are therefore featured in the contents of the Oregon Shakespeare Festival Publications Collection. A large number were also distributed to news organizations, and are therefore featured as reprints in the News Coverage Collection.

Processing Information: Basic processing completed in 2011. This collection should be considered a priority for detailed processing and digitization. Boxes 246 and 247 were combined in August 2015; as of this date there is no longer a Box 246.

Processed by: Lead Archivist Maria DeWeerd in 2011.

Arrangement: Chronological or alphabetical depending on the subseries. The arrangement of the collection as a whole developed over the course of many years based on the needs of former OSF Archivist Kit Leary and the Archives volunteers.

Biographical/Historical Note: In July, 1935 Angus Bowmer, Lois Bowmer, Robert Stedman, and William Cottrell spearheaded efforts to stage Shakespearean plays on the grounds of the old Chautauqua Tabernacle in Ashland, OR as the 'First Annual Shakespearean Festival.' With the exception of the World War II era (1941-1946), the institution has been in continuous operation since that time, becoming one of the oldest and largest Shakespearean festivals in North America. Starting in 1959 non-Shakespearean productions were added to the regular OSF schedule. Non-Shakespearean plays had been produced by the Company in the early years, but these were usually staged at the Varsity Theatre under the auspices of the Vining Repertory. It was in 1970 that the non-Shakespearean productions ventured into the more modern era, motivated in part by the staging possibilities of the newly-opened Angus Bowmer Theatre. The addition of the Black Swan (1977-2001), and the New Theatre in 2002 also expanded opportunities for more adventurous productions.

From 1988 to 1994 a branch of OSF operated in Portland. This facility was first known as Portland Center Stage, but was later renamed OSF Portland. The photographs related to OSF Portland productions and operations are in the OSF Portland records.

Scope and Content: This collection contains the non-digital photo documentation of OSF. Starting with the 2004 season OSF switched to digital photography as the sole means of documentation and distribution. Therefore, the bulk of the content ends with the year 2003.

The collection is made up of the following subseries:

- Productions
- General Chronological
- Subjects
- Departments
- Performance Spaces
- Negatives
- Miscellaneous
- Oversized
- Contracts and Administrative Records

Productions subseries: Consists of images of/from OSF's staged theatrical productions in Ashland, Oregon. The formats represented include photo prints, slides, transparencies and contact sheets. These images are arranged first by format, then chronologically by the year/season in which they were produced, and last alphabetically by production title.

A subset of Productions, Set Shots, was created for the convenience of Senior Scenic and Theatre Designer Richard Hay, whose 50-year career at OSF has earned him international notice and respect. These images consist of full-stage photos designed to document the scenic design of each production. Set Shot images come in all formats, and have been arranged first by year, then by production title.

General Chronological subseries: Consists of non-production photos representing a variety of subjects from the early years of OSF. Photo documentation of non-production activities, people and events from the 1930s through the 1960s does not exist in large volume, nor is it comprehensive or consistent. These photos are also difficult to categorize thematically, since they often represent a variety of historically significant subjects, people and events. Since many Archives projects and reference requests involve research of OSF's early years, a large proportion of these non-production photos have been arranged chronologically by year and placed in this subseries which provides a rough photographic survey of the 1930s-1970s at OSF.

Subject subseries: The Subject headings were created based on the subjects that received the heaviest documentation by staff photographers. They were also created based on the images of locations, events, people, etc. most commonly requested of the Archives. In some cases they represent a specific project or event that involved the heavy documentation of a wide variety of subjects and people (e.g. Fundraising Video (New Theatre.)) The following subject headings are currently in use:

Ashland – Photos of historical Ashland, Oregon. Includes images of larger Ashland and sites related to OSF Audience Development/Outreach – Photos of OSF outreach events. Many of these events are unidentified.

Audio description – Photos of the audio description program and audio describers.

Backstage tours – Photos related to backstage tours and the backstage tour program.

Banners and signs – Photos of the OSF banners that are hung around the OSF campus and the city of Ashland.

Behind the scenes – Sets of images featuring the people and activities that take place behind-the-scenes at OSF (costumes, scene shop, props, box office, front desk, plant crew, etc.) Taken specifically by Marketing for use in the Souvenir Programs; published with the tag line “Behind the Scenes.” The term “Behind the scenes” is the one used by Marketing, and has been retained by the Archives.

Boxing match – Photos of the boxing matches that accompanied the first Oregon Shakespeare Festival in 1935.

Company Call – Photos of the Company Call, the organization-wide meeting conducted by the executive staff.

The Company Call Newsletter – Photos related to The Company Call, the OSF publication/newsletter with the subtitle, “A Publication of Who We Are and What We Do.” Consists primarily of photos used or taken for use in the The Company Call, especially of OSF personnel.

Exhibit Center – Photos related to the OSF Exhibit Center.

Facilities – Photos related to OSF non-theater facilities, including the administration building, Camps, the production building, etc.

Feast of Will – Photos of the annual Feast of Will event, a dinner and celebration held in Lithia Park.

Fourth of July – Photos of OSF’s participation in the Ashland Fourth of July parade, one of the major annual events in the city.

Fundraising video (New Theatre) – Photos taken in association with a fundraising video for the building of the New Theatre. The video was created for use/release in the year 2000. Includes photos of the making of the video and photos taken for use in the video. Features photos of prominent OSF personnel, departments and locations.

Green Show – Photos of the Green Show, a before-play dance, music and entertainment program. Photos feature Green Show performances and rehearsals.

Makeup – Behind-the-scenes photos of performers applying makeup or having makeup applied for a performance. Also includes photos of significant achievements in makeup at OSF.

Membership – Photos of OSF members and member events.

Misc. – Consists of two categories of photos: undated photos that do not fit into any particular subject or departmental heading; and photos that are difficult to categorize, but will be distributed to an appropriate subject or department location once detailed processing is undertaken.

Open house – Photos of the OSF Open House, a yearly event started in the 1990s at which patrons, community members and other visitors are allowed to tour the Scene Shop, Costume Shop, and other areas of the OSF campus that are not open to the public or part of the Backstage Tour. The Open House also includes demonstrations, special performances and activities that highlight behind-the-scenes aspects of OSF: vocal coaching, rehearsals, stage fighting, etc.

Opening – Photos of opening night, opening weekend, and other opening events.

Park Talks/Festival Noons – Photos of the Education department’s Park Talks and Festival Noons, speaking events featuring scholars and OSF staff.

Portraits – Studio and informal portraits of individual OSF performers, staff, board members and other stakeholders.

Publications – Photos of OSF publications, or photos taken for use in OSF publications.

Queen Elizabeth – Photos of OSF actresses, staff or hired personnel dressed as Queen Elizabeth I. This is a promotional tool that has been used regularly through the history of OSF.

Radio shows – Photos involving radio broadcasts (or recordings for broadcast) of OSF productions.

Rehearsals – Photos featuring rehearsals of OSF productions.

Signed performances – Photos of OSF’s sign-language interpreted performances and their development.

Special events – Photos of OSF special events. Consist of some of the following categories of events: play readings, volunteer appreciation, concerts, charity fundraisers, promotions, anniversaries, speaking engagements, holidays, tours, awards, etc.

Tech. photos – Sets of images featuring the people and activities that take place behind-the-scenes at OSF (costumes, scene shop, props, plant crew, etc.; content similar to “Behind the Scenes”) These photos may have been taken for a specific project, publication or event, and exist primarily as sets of negatives and matching contact sheets. Each negative/contact sheet set usually contains images that could be classified according to various headings in the Departments subseries. However, it would be unwise to try and separate them because of their format. The Archives therefore created the “Tech. photos” subject heading to cover the technical disciplines the images represent.

Tudor Guild – Photos related to the Tudor Guild, an independent support organization for OSF. Contains photos of Tudor Guild events, members, and the Tudor Guild gift shop.

VIPs – Photos of celebrities, politicians and other public figures at OSF.

Volunteers – Photos of OSF volunteers and volunteer events.

Department subseries: As with subject headings, the Department headings are based on the professional areas receiving the heaviest photographic documentation and the most Archives requests. These headings represent formally-defined OSF departments and sub-departments, as well as areas of professional specialty.

Negatives subseries: Consists of negatives of OSF-related photography that have been categorized according to year, photographer, subject matter or other identifiable criteria.

Miscellaneous subseries: Consists of images that are difficult to categorize because of their format, content, size or other factor. Consists of the following:

- Contact sheets- Sets of contact sheets that may have been shot in a series. The images represent a variety of productions, subjects, departments and people. Some are marked, and may correspond to negatives (may correspond to negatives in Negatives - 35mm: 1962-2001; see below.)
- Negatives - Sets of negatives that may have been shot in a series. The images represent a variety of productions, subjects, departments and people. Some are marked, and may correspond to the contact sheets above.

Oversized subseries: Consists of images in all formats and covering all subject matters that have been given separate physical storage because they are too large to fit in letter-sized folders and boxes. These images are stored in oversized boxes, map cabinets, and hanging photo racks.

Contracts and Administrative Records subseries: Consists of non-photographic records related to the creation and use of the photograph collection. Contains photographers' contracts, photo release forms, use-authorization forms, order records, etc.
